

Title:

Process Development Engineer / Technical Services Specialist

Duties:

Tech Services / Product Development:

With guidance: Write and execute equipment and process qualification protocols and summary reports / Write batch records / Write change controls / Write SOP's / Perform Basic root cause analysis & design of experiment.

Hands on Testing:

Perform and summarize all physical analysis related to new product development including Sieve Analysis, Camsizer, SEM, VTI, Texture Analyzer, Viscosity, pH, and Density.

Responsibilities:

Responsible for collecting, coordinating, organizing, summarizing and entering all new product development and characterization data. This will include individual sample tracking and the graphing of all data needed to assess a formulation or process. This database must be kept current to allow effective decision making and planning. Report to Manager R&D.

Qualifications:

1-2 years of experience in related industry / job a plus;
Minimum of a Bachelors degree in a technical field or equivalent experience;
Proficiency in use of software including Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel, Microsoft Access, Microsoft; Visio (Process Flow Diagrams a plus);
Statistics / Minitab a plus;
Good communication and writing skills.

Personal Characteristics:

High energy / Can-do attitude (Optimist) / Hard Working / Driven for results
Curious / Ability to multi-task / Sense of humor/ High self-expectations / Efficient

Elite Pharmaceuticals is located at 165 Ludlow Ave., Northvale, NJ (Bergen County) 07647

We offer a competitive salary and benefits package.

Send resume to careers@elitepharma.com

No agencies please.